

Drown

Citizen

I'll sleep outside,
Bury myself on a winter night.
I'll let you do the things you want to,
I'd rather die alone if I have to.
If you don't mind I think I'll stay at home tonight,
My resolution says the things that I've been trying to,
That I'm dying to.

So shut my eyes,
Take my life,
Sit alone and drown again.

I'd like to take you up for taking me down.
And I'd love to kill the mood to stay in solitude.

So shut my eyes,
Take my life,
Sit alone and drown again.
