

You Are a Star

Citizen

Yesterday the storm came and it stayed
Fingerprints smeared across the screen
Sail through the supernova in the way
I am submissive, staring at your face

Evangelist thinks he knows the score
Has never been but talks like he has before
I heard the music ring out through the air
Never around long enough for the answer

Don't let me down
Don't let me down
Don't let me down
Don't let me down

You are a star, quiet in the airglow
A second to spare; a life as a phantom
I saw the heavens open up for me
Where does the music go after today?

Fragile will, here comes another one
We are blind staring into the sun
I know I am no better than you are
But you are the, the last to go

Don't let me down
Don't let me down
Don't let me down
Don't let me down

Don't let me down
Don't let me down
Don't let me down
Don't let me down

Don't let me down
(We have been called by name)
Don't let me down
(We have been called by name)
Don't let me down
(We have been called by name)
(I saw the heavens open up)
Don't let me down
(We have been called by name)
(I saw the heavens open up)
