

Memories

Citron

High above the water even you can sometimes see your face Eternal in her, always hopes you find your place All things that hurt so bad no more makes you sad It's just another life that you've had

And this lonely water
seems to go away
The bells are some crazy it's time to reach the sun Memories are coming with you and you hard hit the ground And all around you
there more than sound

And in the long run
there are memories
Asking you please come make with me
No one seem to be forever
young, the restless
slowly dissapear

Bad things are slowly going leave you all alone All things that hurt you we'll hope it didn't more Pressure on live in singing you're sing like a bird We all live happily
in the sky

And in the long run
there are memories
Shining as blinding
as the sun that
no one seem to be forever
young and restless
slowly dissapear

And in the long run
there are memories
Shining as blinding
as the sun that
young, you now make sun don't give up, you'll see
