

Lies from You

CKY

Lies from you
In constant disbelief
Lies from you
The truth's a mystery

Right when I met you I could clearly tell
There was no honesty
I do detest you, aren't you getting old to Still pretend to be?
No one should trust you (no)
Just making sure it's known for the rest
To see
I will forget you and you will burn in hell, better you than me

Lie with intention
Lie on a whim
Lie, it's obsession
You've always sunken low

(Keep hearing) Lies from you
In constant disbelief
Lies from you
The truth's a mystery

I do regret you, if I had only known what
You were selling me
I'd second-guess you, send you running
Home, avoid the penalties
I'll never let you throw another stone
Without a shot from me
I'd love to catch you when we're all alone
Commit a felony

Lie with intention
Lie on a whim
Lie, it's obsession
You've always sunken low

Lie

(Keep hearing) Lies from you
In constant disbelief
Lies from you
The truth's a mystery
(Keep hearing) Lies from you
In constant disbelief
Lies from you
The truth's a mystery
Lies from you
Keep hearing
Lies from you
Keep hearing
Lies from you
Keep hearing...
