

The Other Ones

CKY

You don't know about the other ones
What started out with one became a few
No you don't know about the other ones, no
But soon you'll realize this is the truth

You know, you know, you know
You know, you know, you know
You know we've all got secrets down deep
(Everybody's hiding them)

I won't admit them all
I've kept them way too long
The less you know the better for me

You don't know about the other ones
What started out with one became a few
But you remind me of the other ones
Forgive me for I know not what I do

You know, you know, you know
You know, you know, you know
You know we've all got secrets down deep
(Everybody's hiding)

I won't admit them all
I've kept them way too long
The less you know the better for me

You don't know about the other ones
What started out with one became a few
Yet you won't know about the other ones
As I've decided one of them is you
