

I Will Carry You

Clay Aiken

Yeah I know it hurts, Yeah I know you're scared walking down the road that leads to who knows where. Don't you hang your head don't you give up yet when courage starts to disappear I will be right here.

When your world breaks down and the voices tell you turn around . When your dreams give out I will carry you, carry you. When the stars go blind and the darkness starts to flood your eyes. When you're falling behind, I will carry you.

Everybody cries, Everybody bleeds, No one ever said that life's an easy thing. That's the beauty of it, when you lose your way, close your eyes and go to sleep and wake up to another day .

You should know now that you're not alone. Take my heart and we will find, you will find, your way home.

When your dreams give out I will carry you, carry you. When the stars go blind and the darkness starts to flood your eyes. When you're falling behind, I will carry you, carry you, I will carry you, carry you, I will carry you, carry you, I will carry you.
