Bread

Clem Snide

'Cause you are the bread And it's never work And warm, buttered is good Oh, let's just digest

And the dishes are fine They're not goin' nowhere So keep your hands soft For high fives and shakes

And the bathroom's a mess Tomorrow we'll clean And my window won't shut But the breeze does feel nice

And the stove can be years To light cigarettes Oh, let the tablecloth burn It's pretty that way

'Cause you smell like bread And now the pillow does too 'Cause everyone left With a even hue
