

I Believe Your Lies

Clem Snide

Tell me how you're so in love with me
Tell me that a kiss will set me free
'Cause I'll believe your lies

You sing a song that makes my heart soar
Write a headline that can't be ignored
'Cause I'll believe your lies
I'll believe your lies

And it must be true 'cause everyone agrees
And I'll bow my head and fall down on my knees
And it must be true and don't it feel so right?

Praise the Lord, I think I see the light
'Cause I believe your lies
I'll believe your lies
I'll believe your lies
