

Come Back To Me

Cliff Richard

Oh oh, yeah yeah

I saw you from the train that day
And the way my heart jumped
I knew I couldn't stay away
I was with somebody else
So I left these crazy thoughts upon the shelf

And my heart would race again
Just to hear someone else bringing up your name
I never got you to explain, no
And I never, ever got over the pain
When you were gone, I wrote this song
In my mind, I was still trying

Please come back to me
I can't guarantee
It's your heart that I am gonna feed
Just take all of me
It's yours, and I'm free
And in your voice, I hear a melody
Can't you hear it

I tried to make a stake on
When I saw that you weren't ready
I'd packed and gone
And after you had run away
I realized that I couldn't have made you stay
When you were gone, I wrote this song
I have to stop pretending

Please come back to me
I can't guarantee
It's your heart that I am gonna feed
Just take all of me
It's yours and I'm free
And in your voice, I hear a melody

And what could have been
Never got to be, ooh
When you're by yourself
Do you ever think of me
I'm just a man and I do feel pain
And I gotta tell you girl
That I felt it that day

And all I need to know is
That you want to try it again
Just take all of me
'Cause it's yours and I'm free
And in your voice, I hear this melody
Oh, ah yeah

Just, just take all of me
It's yours and I'm free

I can hear it
Please come back to me
Yeah I can hear it, oh I can hear it playing
Can't you hear it
Please come back to me
Such a melody
It's yours and I'm free
Come on back to me
