Human Work of Art

Cliff Richard

No one on earth Means more to me Your painted pictures Are the way that the world should be Don't ever change it I don't wanna live in this world without you Oh no I can't explain, I can't define What you do to me, but my senses are so alive You tell your story And it's all that I ever believe Portraits and poetry Are frozen forms of perfection But they don't live and breathe When my heart's in need they don't answer me You, ooh, you are You're a human work of art Walking, talking inspiration You, ooh, you are You're a human work of art You make me love, you make me care You give me freedom I don't need when I know you're there My search is over I've got all of the riches that money don't buy Oh no Your words are poetry And your face is more than perfection The way I watch you move it only goes to prove In everything to do You, ooh, you are You're a human work of art Walking, talking inspiration You, ooh, you are You're a human work of art You're my mission You're my goal Ooh you liberate my soul There's no illusion, that your touch is gold Portraits and poetry Are frozen forms of perfection The way I watch you move it only goes to prove In everything you do You, ooh, you are

You're a human work of art Walking, talking new sensation

You, ooh, you are You're a human work of art Walking, talking inspiration
