

It's Only Me You've Left Behind

Cliff Richard

It's been a long day
You must be halfway
Oh babe, it hurts me so
To know I've lost you
Really lost you baby

You took the sunshine
Ran off on cloud nine
Now there's no stars tonight
You've taken everything in sight

It's only me you've left behind
(It's only, it's only, it's only me)
It's only me, so never mind
Don't you worry, baby, 'cause you'll find
It's only me you've left behind

Was I naïve to think I could read you
Into my life somehow
But now I've lost you
Really lost you baby

So call me lonely
The one and only
Yes, I'm that Mr. Blue
You didn't take along with you

It's only me you've left behind
(It's only, it's only, it's only me)
It's only me, so never mind
Don't you worry, baby, 'cause you'll find

It's only me you've left behind
(It's only, it's only, it's only me)
It's only me so never mind
Don't you worry, baby, 'cause you'll find
It's only me you've left behind
