

There You Go Again

Cliff Richard

There you go again
Leaving with a smile
There you go again
And saying it's only for a while
But you'll be back, mmm hmm
You'll be back

And here am I again
Wishing I was strong
Here am I again
Thinking that even a day is too long
But you say you'll be back, mmm hmm
You'll be back

Well I'm sure it's wrong to be so strong
And never say simple words
Like I don't want to leave you
Would it damage your pride
To say you hurt inside
That you don't want to go away
It's all I want you to say

But there you go again
And smiling goodbye
And here am I again
Heaving a sigh
How but it came right back, mm hmm

All I want to hear you say is
I don't want go
Say you don't want to leave
That you don't want to go, mm hmm

Say it, say it, you don't want to go
Tell me that you don't want to go
That you don't want to leave

Say it, say it, that you don't want to go
Tell me you don't want to leave
Say that you don't want to go
