

To Prove My Love For You

Cliff Richard

(Wah-ah-ah-ah, du-du-du-du)

I haven't dated anyone since we first met
I kissed you and I made you a vow I won't forget
What else can I do, to prove my love for you

The week that you were out of town
I just stayed home
If I can't be with you, I'd rather be alone
What else can I do, to prove my love for you

You were on my mind each day
I dream of you all night long
You were in my heart to stay
'Cause my love is stronger than strong

I swear that I am yours and yours I'll always be Forever and forever you can count on me
What else can I do, to prove my love for you
What else can I do, to prove my love for you
