

Woman And A Man

Cliff Richard

It takes a woman and a man
Oh, a woman and a man, yeah yeah
Just a woman, ooh ooh
Set the world agaze
Just a woman and a man

The woman is truly special
You got to treasure her every day
Yeah, yeah
Hold her hand when she gets weary
Tell her you'll never go away

But if she wants some time to be apart
You got to give her what she needs
Use the power from inside your heart
And if it's really meant to be
She'll follow your lead like a true believer

Long ago we started
Just a lot of "I wanna do" wishing
It takes a woman and a man in this world of dreamers
One on one, we never parted
'Cause I will always be there
It takes a woman and a man in this world of dreamers

I spent lonely nights without her
When I just closed my eyes and prayed
Ooh, that she would feel my endless passion
And she'd return to me someday
I was the dance, she was the dancer
Turning circles on her own
Until her heart revealed the answer
And it'd carry her back home
She followed the lead of a true believer

Long ago we started
Just a lot of "I wanna do" wishes
It takes a woman and a man in this world of dreamers
One on one, we never parted
And I will always be there
It takes a woman and a man in this world of dreamers
In a world of dreamers
A woman and a man

A woman and a man in this world of dreamers
Long ago we started
It takes a woman and a man in this world of dreamers
One on one, we never parted
And I will always be there
It takes a woman and a man in this world of dreamers
