

Wouldn't You Know It?

Cliff Richard

(Hip-hip, feel so good, hip-hip, feel so good)
Dropped her off at home when the lights were going down
Now I am driving home alone, with my radio on
I feel so happy now, 'cause she gave me her number
Invited me to call when I'm alone
Feel so good (hip-hip, feel so good)

Wouldn't you know it, got myself a girl
Wouldn't you know it, my heart in the whirl
Wouldn't you know it, got myself a girl
And I belong, she's just what I need to carry on

(Hip-hip, feel so good, hip-hip, feel so good)
I called her up at seven, hoping she was in
She remembered my name, said to come around again
So I jumped into my car, had to get there in hurry
She was waiting there
Now I don't have to worry (worry)
Feel so good (feel so good)

Wouldn't you know it, got myself a girl
Wouldn't you know it, my heart in the whirl
Wouldn't you know it, got myself a girl
Now I belong, she's just what I need to carry on

She's so easy, she never makes the rules
I'm never gonna lose, now I am through it
What am I, what am I, what am I to do
Feel so good, feel so good

Wouldn't you know it, got myself a girl
Wouldn't you know it, my heart in the whirl
Wouldn't you know it, got myself a girl
Now I belong, she's just what I need to carry on

(Hip-hip) feel so good, (hip-hip) feel so good
