

Yes He Lives

Cliff Richard

One thing leads to another
Take his message, feel it in your heart
Then tell your brother just how you feel
We've lived to die too long!

One day leads to another
Take each moment - won't you give it all your love?
Then tell your brother this is the real
We've lived to die too long!

Yes, he was
Yes, he is
Yes, he lives!
He lives in the heart of his children
Yes, he was
Yes, he is
Yes, he lives!

One road leads to another,
Take my hand and walk his road together
Then tell your brother there's just one way
We've lived to lie too long!
(Too long)

Yes, he lives!

Keep on, break the chains of sorrow
Burn your past, give him your tomorrow
He gave his life so we might live
We've lived to die too long
Much too long!

Yes, he was
Yes, he is
Yes, he lives!
He lives in the heart of his children!
Yes, he lives!
Yes, he lives!
(Alleluia)
Yes, he lives!
(He lives, he lives, he lives, he lives)
Yes, he lives!
(Alleluia)
Yes, he lives!
(In the heart of his children)
Yes, he lives!
(Alleluia)
Yes, he lives!
(He lives, he lives, he lives, he lives)
Yes, he lives!
(Alleluia)
Yes, he lives!
(In the heart of his children)
Yes, he lives!
(Alleluia)
Yes, he lives!
(He lives, he lives, he lives, he lives)

Yes, he lives!
(Alleluia)
