

You Will Never Know

Cliff Richard

One day I'll write a book about you
One day I'll write a book about you
And you will never know, you will never know.
One day I'll write a poem about you
Been feeling so alone without you
And you will never know, no you will never know.

How I loved you, how I loved you, how I loved you
Too much to say, too much to pay, but not enough to stay for

One day I'll write a song about you
And hope I wasn't wrong about you
And you will never know, you will never know.

Ba-paparapaparapa

How I loved you, how i loved you, how i loved you Too much to sigh, too much to cry, but not enough to die for.

One day I'll write a play about you Got so much to say about you, and you will never know.
You will never know.

Ba-paparapaparapa

How I loved you, how i loved you, how i loved you
Too much to say, too much to pay, but not enough to stay for One day I'll write that song about you, and hope I wasn't wrong about you.
And you will never know, no you will never know.

Ba-paparapaparapa

And you will never know, no you will never know, you will never know.
