

I'm Not Gone

Cloud Cult

I live my life with my back against the wall
I really cannot figure anything at all
I have run

I remember friends
I remember lovers
I remember fighters
I remember feeling like I couldn't get them all

I would swim against the river, swim against the stream.
I'm not alive,
I am only in a dream.
I'm not gone.

I'm not gone.

You're all gone.

I'm not gone.
