

A New Design

Cloudscape

From darkened times you're climbing up
Your future endeavours will lead you right
Stay focused on the path you've choosen
Don't be mislead into traps along the way

All your dreams have changed into a new design
Once for all you're leaving it all behind forever
Embrace the sunlight of tomorrow
Put out the light of yesterday
A new design

All structures created in your dreams
A power of will that will not fail
You see the future shine in front of you
No chance in life you will abandon it

All your dreams have changed into a new design
Once for all you're leaving it all behind forever
Embrace the sunlight of tomorrow
Put out the light of yesterday
A new design

All your dreams have changed into a new design
Once for all you're leaving it all behind forever
Embrace the sunlight of tomorrow
Put out the light of yesterday
A new design
