

Silver Surfer

Cloven Hoof

I blaze across the heavens,
Into the great unknown.
Riding the comet's tail
with ease I soar.
I've seen the supernova,
star fields to roam.
Here where the winds of Saturn roar.

Chorus

Born to ride the starways, glide on solar winds.
To the point where time ends,
and the void begins.

Silver Surfer,
Meteors fly.
I am the Silver Surfer,
Into the eye of the sky.

I wield the cosmic power,
mine to command.
mysteries of the universe unfold.

But still my heart grows colder away from my homeland, light years alone no one to hold.

(Chorus)
