Cockney Rejects

Here comes the new punk
Do you remember 1977
Daddy of the gang said
That you'll go to heaven
Every word a lie and none the truth
So here's a message for today's youth
Join the Rejects and get yourself killed
I wanna go back to where it all began
I wanna do a gig in my back garden
Wanna have a laugh before the press get in
If you give'em half a chance
They'll kill the fucking thing
