

Rain

Coco Jones

Yeah, yeah
Uh huh, uh huh

Wanna see down the road so I know where to go
I wanna win
I get scared, feel alone, wanna know the unknown but Don't give in

I just face it, I make changes
I control what I can control
I ain't fearless, but I feel less
'Cause I know who has my soul

I'm runnin' through the rain, rain, rain
I do it day by day, day, day
I'm runnin' through the rain, rain, rain
The forecast for the day
I knew that it would rain
I'm runnin' anyway

I can see it to multiply through a hundred tries
When I look up in the sky
It'll one day be the time when I'm finished, when I'm done
It'll taste so beautiful to understand the words and its phases

I make changes
I control what I can control
I ain't fearless, but I feel less
'Cause I know who has my soul

I'm runnin' through the rain, rain, rain
I do it day by day, day, day
I'm runnin' through the rain, rain, rain
The forecast for the day
I knew that it would rain
I'm runnin' anyway

Summer rain, when it rains, run again
Through some pain, quit pretendin'
Summer rain, when it rains, run again
Through some pain, quit pretendin'
Who you choosin'?

Runnin' through the rain, rain, oh rain
I do it day by day, day, day
I'm runnin' through the rain, rain
Ooh, oh
The forecast for the day
I knew that it would rain
I'm runnin' anyway
Oh
