

The Same

Coco Jones

Yeah...

You pushing, you pulling, you trying to kill me
But both of us, we never wanted the real thing
As hard as I swim I can drown in a minute
Depends on that you are feeling, you feel me

Do you wanna stay
Do you wait
Do you wanna play
With my heart
Say your gonna change
Boy don't start
Do you wanna stay
Do you wanna wait
You say that your different
I say you're the same

I say you're the same
I say you're the same
I say you're the same
I say you're the same
I see this every single day
I say you're the same
I say you're the same
I say you're the same

I guess I'll wait in ya shadow
I guess with the door closed
I guess I'll wait
Till you feel okay
Till you wanna play like an adult
I guess I'll wait
I'm going under
I'm just the rain
And you the thunder
All in your space
Fill up your face to you get enough of it

Do you wanna stay
Do you wait
Do you wanna play
With my heart
Say your gonna change
Boy don't start
Do you wanna stay
Do you wanna wait
I say you're the same

I say you're the same
I say you're the same

I say you're the same
I say you're the same
I say you're the same
Your all the same
