

No Tears In My Eyes

Cody Johnson

We've got every ingredient, here for a broken heart
From the asphalt in the driveway, to the keys stuck in my car
& This time there ain't no brake lights no I ain't slowin' down
Cause this time there ain't no tears in my eyes & Now these old six strings are tired of singing all these old sad songs
With every note they're begging me to try to move on & I try, you know I think I'll be alright
Cause this time there ain't no tears in my eyes
& Now I'm letting go of us
I'm getting back to the man that I was
In the rearview all I can see
Is what used to be, and that makes me smile
Cause this time there ain't no tears in my eyes
& I remember all those lonely nights lying next to you & I changed so much about me and that something that a man should never have to do
I was just trying to please you
So tonight I'll say goodbye, without a single tear in my eye
& Now I'm letting go of us
I'm getting back to the man that I was & in the rearview all I can see, is what used to be & that makes me smile
Cause this time there ain't no tears in my eyes
No, this time
There ain't no tears in my eyes
