

Picture of a Man

Cody Johnson

Well this pillow that I'm holdin'
Baby just ain't you
The words I left unspoken
Proved themselves to be true
Night after night I lay here
Prayin' this is just a dream
Every morning, I wake up to find
That I'm doing the same old thing

Cause this is me without you
This is me not getting very far
This is me without you in my life
This is the picture of a man after goodbye

Oh, your picture that I kiss
Sure don't feel like your lips
It's getting so bad
I don't know how much more I can take of this
I guess I'm finally coming to grips with the fact
That your heart has made up it's mind
I told myself I'm over you
Must have done it a thousand times

'Cause this is me without you
This is me not getting very far
This is me without you in my life
This is the picture of a man after goodbye

They say a picture paints a thousand words
I've got nothing left to say
Oh, da Vinci would sure have a hard time putting me on his page

Cause this is me without you
This is me not getting very far
This is me without you in my life
This is the picture of a man after goodbye

Oh this is the picture of a man after goodbye
After goodbye