

No Reason to Run

Cold War Kids

In the mirror I see my face
I've got to let this go
What if all my decisions are fear based?
What if I lose control?
I'm asking for an intervention
I've tried to fly solo
It's not a question of whether I will fall, it's how hard I hit the floor

When did I feel it?
How did I know that you were the one?
I am defeated
I got no reason to run, no reason to run

I wanna be proud of your movement
Somebody sign me up
Have you ever felt so authentic?
Like you belong to the world
Freedom is overrated
I'm not gonna come undone
I can't lose my motivation
Laying out, day in the sun

When did I feel it?
How did I know that you were the one?
I am defeated
I got no reason to run, no reason to run

Don't wanna hear your praise
Don't reminisce on glory days
Bite the tears, yeah I'm okay
I'm like a crow
Man-to-man
Walking out of my cage
I have evolved like a fish growing legs
Hope you like a light hole crept in my brain
I am changed, yeah I have changed
I got you
And I'm never gonna be the same

When did I feel it? (When did I feel it?)
How did I know that you were the one?
I am defeated (I am defeated)
I got no reason to run, no reason to run

Stay by my side
No reason to run
So we're in love, so alive
No reason to run
Stay by my side
No reason to run
So we're in love, so alive
No reason to run
Stay by my side
No reason to run
So we're in love, so alive
I got no reason to run
Stay by my side

No, no reason to run
So we're in love, so alive
No reason to run
