Many landscapes in your eyes Don't say nothing And don't need to try So you're going away... away

Many landscapes in your eyes Don't say nothing And don't even try So you're going away It's our karma for the day Our karma for the day

You need to move You're feeling blue You need to move You're feeling blue

Many landscapes in your eyes Don't say nothing And don't even try So you're going away It's our karma for the day Our karma for the day

You need to move You're feeling blue You need to move

You need to move, You're feeling blue I'm so confused

And I don't know nothing anymore...

You need to move, You're feeling blue I'm so confused

You go away,
I'm gonna stay
...It's our karma for the day
...For the day
Our karma for the day
For the day
