

January 1st

coldrain

I can't believe that it's over now
I hope you know that I'll miss you
You fought the fight like no other could
Day and night, hope you know I'm so proud of you

Said goodbye but had to lie
Tonight it's not alright
So I'll try but can't deny
Tonight will never be alright

Tell me, how do I let go
When all I know is to hold on?
Every memory that you left
Keeps me from moving ahead
Tell me, how do I let go?

It's been a month, I've been doing good
I wrote this song thinking of you
I hope it helps someone like me someday get through Losing somebody like you

Said I try but had to lie
Goodbye is not alright
So I'll cry from time to time
'Cause goodbye will never be alright

Tell me, how do I let go
When all I know is to hold on?
Every memory that you left
Keeps me from moving ahead
Tell me, how do I let go?

I never had to say a word
It's like you always saw me through
But all you ever asked of me
Was to hold you like I always do
I never had to say a word
It's like you always saw me through
But all you ever asked of me
Was to love you like I do

Tell me, how do I let go
When all I know is to hold on?
Every memory that you left
Keeps me from moving ahead
Tell me, how do I let go?

How do I let go?
How do I let go?
Every memory that you left
Keeps me from moving ahead
Tell me, how do I let go?
