

Mayday

coldrain

Take what you got and leave now
You're wearing out your welcome
No one here wants to see you, hear you
Think that you've won from day one
But soon the Devil will come
You know just why he wants you, don't you?

Your crooked desire
Misguided, divided
At the point of no return
You started a fire
You're gonna watch it burn
Try to save yourself like you always do

Every bridge we build
You think it's yours to burn it down
Just burn it down
When everything is gone
You'll wish you only heard us out
Heard us out

Screaming mayday!
Mayday!

Act like you've only done good
Unfairly misunderstood
Play the victim, it's so you, what's new?
Lie, after lie, after lie
We all stopped counting the crimes
You know why we can't trust you, don't you?

Your crooked desire
Misguided, divided
At the point of no return
You started a fire
You're gonna watch it burn
Try to save yourself like you always do

Every bridge we build
You think it's yours to burn it down
Just burn it down
When everything is gone
You'll wish you only heard us out
Heard us out

Why don't you choke on yourself
Swallow the hate or just fucking go

You set yourself, the world on fire
Rising, fighting, dying
But there's nowhere to run
'Cause all of the bridges burned

All you are is a fucking monster
A walking disaster

You touch it, you break it, you kill it
Just like a cureless cancer

Every bridge we build
You think it's yours to burn it down
When everything is gone
You'll wish you only heard us out
Heard us out

Every bridge we build
You think it's yours to burn it down
Just burn it down
When everything is gone
You'll wish you only heard us out
Heard us out

Screaming mayday!
Mayday!
Mayday!
Mayday!
