

Revolution

coldrain

Thinking out loud I see no solution
Screaming out loud for a revolution

Stop provoking me
Controlling what I want and what I need
Destroying what I say and what I mean
You try to test me
I'll make sure you bleed

I'm sick of expecting, sick of reasoning

Say what you wanna say
Do what you wanna do
You can call it love but you're killing me
Say what you wanna say
Do what you wanna do
Give me some closure, my patience is over

Thinking out loud I see no solution
Screaming out loud for a revolution

Holding on to a lie
Doesn't matter how hard I try
You'll be making up your damn mind
That I'm something made by design

Holding on to a lie
Doesn't matter how hard I try
You'll be making up your damn mind
That I'm something made by design

So just stop provoking me
Controlling what I want and what I need
Destroying who I am, who I fight to be

Say what you wanna say
Do what you wanna do
You can call it love but you're killing me
Say what you wanna say
Do what you wanna do
Give me some closure, my patience is over

Thinking out loud I see no solution
Screaming out loud for a revolution

I'm sick of being sick of still holding on
The poison's eating through my soul holding on
If only I could let this go, I'd let go
I'd let this go, I'd let this go

Thinking out loud I see no solution
Screaming out loud for a revolution
Thinking out loud I see no solution
Screaming out loud

Say what you wanna say
Do what you wanna do

You can call it love but you're killing me
Say what you wanna say
Do what you wanna do
Give me some closure, my patience is over

Thinking out loud I see no solution
Screaming out loud for a revolution
