

The Future

coldrain

Seven years ago
I was just a young lost soul
With no place to go at all
Now I'm on the road
With schedules of sold out shows
But I still want more
Who could have ever known

The future is here inside my hands
As I travel the unknown
The risks are high the odds are low
But I am not alone
The future is here inside my hands
And I'm answering the call
Cause I'd rather fail then never know at all

All these scars and sores
I've collected along the way
But the pain is gone
Once I stand on stage
I'm not running or hiding not anymore
Cause I know there's no way out of this now
What I want is what I need
Until then I believe

The future is here inside my hands
As I travel the unknown
The risks are high the odds are low
But I am not alone
The future is here inside my hands
And I'm answering the call
Cause I'd rather fail then never know at all

There is just one thing that I need to say
Without my friends I couldn't have got to where I'm standing
There is just one thing I never will forget
Without you here I couldn't have become who I am

The future is here inside my hands
As I travel the unknown
The risks are high the odds are low
But I am not alone
The future is here inside my hands
And I'm answering the call
Cause I'd rather fail then never know at all
