

Voiceless

coldrain

We are the surface of mass deception
In control of what we think we know
But if of all our misconceptions
Of losing sight of right and wrong

The trail that we need to know
Can't be dug up, it's been too long
The things that we need to feel around our eyes are official

Wake up, wake up
It's time to fight now
Stand up, stand up
For what is real
We can get up if we hit the ground
But nothing is lost if we only follow

Is this a useless situation
It might fully think there's more
You're on a path of self-destruction
It's up for us to change the course

If you ever realized
The past is past
What's done is done
The only way to make it right
Is to keep on looking forward

Wake up, wake up
It's time to fight now
Stand up, stand up
For what is real
We can get up if we hit the ground
But nothing is lost if we only follow
Wake up, wake up
It's time to fight now
Stand up, stand up
This is the song for the voiceless ones
We won't lose hope until we all stand up

We are the chosen
The sacrificial land
We are the chosen
This is the final stand
It's time to rise up

The silence has broken
The truth has been spoken to set you fly

Wake up, wake up
It's time to fight now
Stand up, stand up
For what is real
We can get up if we hit the ground
But nothing is lost if we only follow
Wake up, wake up
It's time to fight now

Stand up, stand up
We won't lose hope until we all stand up
