

Told You So

Colette Carr

I won't say that I told you so
Told you so, baby, told you so
I won't say that I told you so
Told you so, told you so!

These words are a gold chain, put it on your neck!
True words tell a story that a pill can't forget.
Early in the morning on your last cigarette
Have a boing in my chest, an operator in your head.
There's not much we can say about a mistake that once we said
The only way you're going away is in a box or trash bag.

Oh no, she didn't,
Oh yes I fucking did!
Oh no, she didn't,
I sing that shit again! (2x)

I won't say that I told you so
Told you so, baby, told you so
I won't say that I told you so
Told you so, told you so!
And I won't say that I told you so
Told you so, baby, told you so
I won't say that I told you so
Told you so, told you so!

And I can't hear one more lie,
And I can't get one more bruise
Cause you had me petrified
So low that I sleep with you.
Cause you always promise Heaven,
Now you're sick, 9/11
One step back, let's hit this,
Gotta toss that back off this bridge!

Oh no, she didn't,
Oh yes I fucking did!
Oh no, she didn't,
I sing that shit again! (2x)

I won't say that I told you so
Told you so, baby, told you so
I won't say that I told you so
Told you so, told you so!
And I won't say that I told you so
Told you so, baby, told you so
I won't say that I told you so
Told you so, told you so!

I'm starting to have second thoughts
No, come on, let's just do the show, man!
Yeah, I mean, yes, it is too late now
I mean, I don't have to wait for him
He can get that I miss him?
No, my Gosh!

Oh no, she didn't,

Oh yes I fucking did!
Oh no, she didn't,
I sing that shit again!

I won't say that I told you so
Told you so, baby, told you so
I won't say that I told you so
Told you so, told you so!
And I won't say that I told you so
Told you so, baby, told you so
I won't say that I told you so
Told you so, told you so!
