

Love is Innocent

Colin Hay

I've been standing here
Staring at the mirror
The voice that's in my ear
Is not my friend

I know you're sad and blue
I know and I am too
And now I'm on the train
I see the writing on the wall
It says

Love is innocent
Love is innocent

You're always on my mind
And time is standing still now
The words that were unkind
Are here again

You're fading from my view
I know that I am too
And now I'm on the train
I see the writing on the wall
It says

Love is innocent
Love is innocent

And now the whistle is blowing
It's time to get onboard
There's no way of knowing
Where it will, where it will stop

I know it's up to me
I'm going to try and pick up the pieces
I have to find a seat
With a better view

I know you're sad and blue
I know and I am too
And now I'm on the train
I see the writing on the wall
It says

Love is innocent
Love is innocent
Love is innocent
Love is innocent
