

Brighter Days

Collie Buddz

I try my best to stay conscious, on the front line
Tho I've danced with the devil a few times
But all I know is love will find you and roll on brighter days
Try your best to stay conscious, only one life
Love ya life and the level where you find
And all I know is love will find you and roll on brighter days

Yeah mi heart clean you can't tell me nothing
Nuff people out there waan try push mi button
Mi have to stay focus, deal with progress
This is it not the time to go astray
Nuff a dem nah talk not saying nothing
Better try again you waan tell me something
Like mi nuh notice, them argument bogus
Mi Know say dem a badmind from wha day

You haffi live the life you love
Love the life you live
You nah see me drop off
Love the life you live
Live the life you love
Live the life you love
Love the life you live
You nah see me drop off
Love the life you live
Live the life you love

I try my best to stay conscious, on the front line
Tho I've danced with the devil a few times
But all I know is love will find you and roll on brighter days
Try your best to stay conscious, only one life
Love ya life and the level where you find
And all I know is love will find you and roll on brighter days

You have to take it one day step by step
Lucky thing mi have the herbs high grade pon deck
Roll a spliff listen tune an hold a Medi
Anything life brings yo mi ever ready
So how them waan test me but mi nah stress
Pure good vibes surround me and I'm so bless
And mi nuh take it for granted sow the seeds web mi planted
Give thanks for life it a the greatest

You haffi live the life you love
Love the life you live
You nah see me drop off
Love the life you live
Live the life you love
Live the life you love
Love the life you live
You nah see me drop off
Love the life you live
Live the life you love

I try my best to stay conscious, on the front line
Tho I've danced with the devil a few times
But all I know is love will find you and roll on brighter days

Try your best to stay conscious, only one life
Love ya life and the level where you find
And all I know is love will find you and roll on brighter days

I try my best to stay conscious, on the front line
Tho I've danced with the devil a few times
But all I know is love will find you and roll on brighter days
Try your best to stay conscious, only one life
Love ya life and the level where you find
And all I know is love will find you and roll on brighter days
