

A Bible And A Bus Ticket Home

Collin Raye

Mamma's tears fell so easy
Daddy's handshake was strong
Then I climbed aboard that greyhound
Eighteen and glad to be gone

Took a rented room on Broadway
And as I unpacked everything I owed
I found a note my mamma left me
With a Bible and a bus ticket home

It said, 'One will get you where you're going
When you haven't got a prayer
And one will bring you back son
If your dreams ain't waiting there'

'You're out on your own now
We won't be there to fall back on
But you know we're never farther
Than a Bible and a bus ticket home'

The years have come and gone and taken
The only things in life I ever counted on
But I'm going back tomorrow
To lay flowers on their stone

I can almost hear my mamma calling
Saying, 'Son come back where you belong
You've got all you need to get here
A Bible and a bus ticket home'

It said, 'One will get you where you're going
When you haven't got a prayer
And one can bring you back son
If your dreams ain't waiting there'

'You're out on your own now
We won't be there to fall back on
But you know we're never farther
Than a Bible and a bus ticket home
Boy you know we're never farther
Than a Bible and a bus ticket home'
