

Be My Slave

Colony 5

I sometimes see my life just as a game
The game is for real and affects you in an instant
I choose the rules and you, you have to obey
I'm the king and you are just a servant

I want to see you run, run from your fear
I want you to become my servant for fear that I can thrust
Erase your normal life, vanish in my world and I will feed you

Now we can see the star so bright
The start that guides us to our lifeline
It brings the godfull light over this world
Soon the time will come, the time we have been waiting for

I want to see you run, run from your fear
I want you to become my servant for fear that I can thrust
Erase your normal life, vanish in my world and I will feed you

Together we are stronger than we wish to pretend
Help me rule the world that I just gained
Open all you senses for this cause and pray gather followers
And help them to restore what we make (2x)
