I killed you in me

I killed you in me I'm willing to die to seek cover It leads me to my destiny How I can never know what happened to me Outcome none, outcome never makes any sense Blinded through my eyes, all I see is red death paint For fear in my head White bright light Fearless minds Falling through again I'm invincible I see white lights and empty souls Drags me down the well Empty I'm on my deathbed Deathbed I'm on my deathbed Deathbed Deathbed I killed you in me I'm willing to live to start over No sign of love, it's obsolete I still feel lust in power I'm still on the run I'm still running away from you And in this shadow I wait for you Strip for you In white light, my fearless mind Falling through again I'm invincible I'm invincible In white light I see my soul, drowning in a well Lonely I'm on my deathbed Deathbed I'm on my deathbed Deathbed Deathbed I'm on my deathbed Deathbed I'm on my deathbed Deathbed Deathbed I killed I killed you in me I killed you I killed you in me I killed you I killed you I killed you You in me
