My Bleeding Victim

Communic

Where am I now? Have I turned blind? Broken down by the guilt of my killing hand

My bleeding victim Folds her hands an prays My bleeding victim Folds her hands and prays

The morning rise the sky burns red Sheets are soaked by unknown blood and soil Memories burn - I crawl in pain The scene I see is becoming more surreal

Beyond the veil - stalking my prey Beyond control - I'm on my way

Drawn into the center of the weak Madness flares within my angry mind Alone in this maze where voices speak In twisted tongues that taunt for evil deeds

Beyond the veil - stalking my prey Beyond control - Unveil my pain

I feel the blood slowly flow In a reflecting eye I see them die Heartbeat that silently decays Sinking deep into the Earth's hungry soil

I will return Same face With a new mask Trying to hide From the guilt Of my killing hand

My bleeding victim Folds her hands and prays My bleeding victim Folds her hands and...

....prays while the blood slowly flow In a reflecting eye I see them die A heartbeat that silently decays Sinking deep into the Earth's hungry soil

Drawn into the center of the weak Madness flares within my angry mind Alone in this maze where voices speak In twisted tongues that taunt for evil deeds

Beyond the evil - I'm on my way Beyond the evil - Stalking my prey Beyond the evil - I'm on my way Beyond the evil - Unveil my pain Tištěno z pisnicky-akordy.cz
