Carnal Comprehension

Conception

Afraid to stop and catch your breath? You know I'm right behind you I guess, some time You'll have to rest and I'll be there To push you through

I'm the burden you bear On your shoulder The voice in your head It's time to surrender

Comprehend, I see your eyes While you're changing, rearranging Make believe, islands apart I'm still there for you I swear it

I seek the wounded prey in you Ways to convey your anger While you are still In mother's womb

I am sublime in what we share I'm a wave in the sand tracing borders I'm God in your hands It's time you remember

Comprehend, I am the sky Wipe away the silver lining Make believe, dawn never comes I'm still there for you

I know the will it takes To cross the bridge from here to never I've seen a thousand pictures Of a dream I hardly could find

Forever I will keep the memories For only you to open Before you lose your mind Just before you lose Before you lose your mind It's easy to get lost In this mad, mad world

If I'm hard to find Stop the world before you're falling off Try a second time All I ever knew, I'd tell to you
