

My Dark Symphony

Conception

Rain keep pouring down
I feel my withered skin
On the naked window pane
I shut the door no need to run
A chain of broken dreams
Took my soul
Whatever god may be
I can't believe you're gone for all eternity
Even fire and ice
Leave a hope to unite
But this moment in time
Feels long
The lies come alive
From the walk down the aisle
Like you're here
Like it was before
Like it used to be
With all this foul attention
I'm holding the beat and the note
You're coming closer
I am falling in too deep
Feel you over all
You're still shining warm and bright
Say hello
And leave again with a smile
Over me, Over me
Silently you're waving goodbye
Goodbye for good
Thru fire and ice
There's a hope to unite
Though this moment in time
Feels long
See these lies come alive
From the walk down the aisle
Like you're here
Like it was before
Walk with me
Now, Won't you talk to me
What you see
Is what you get War within
Want to hear caress this love of mine
My Dark symphony
Even fire and ice
Leave a hope to unite
Feels long
The lies come alive
From the walk down the aisle
Like you're here
Like it was before
Like it used to be
Like it used to be
