Conchita Wurst

Here we are in the darkened room
It's cold down here in your truth
You look at me with a frozen heart
You're out for blood

But you and me will never be the same
You and me we are far too gone to safe

Beam me to the light
Beam me to the sky
I'm destined to be seen
In all my glean
Beam me to the light
Beam me to the sky
I'm in no way close to done
I've barely just begun

So I lean forward! forward! forward! forward!
Lean forward! forward! forward! forward!

You're not the first who's trying to break me
I've got tales that can't be told
Hear me now when I say it loud and Clear I vow to fight

Cause all of me determined to believe
I came to be the one that breaks regime

Beam me to the light
Beam me to the sky
I'm destined to be seen
In all my glean
Beam me to the light
Beam me to the sky
I'm in no way close to done
I've barely just begun

Beam me to the light
Beam me to the sky
I'm destined to be seen
In all my glean
Beam me to the light
Beam me to the sky
I'm in no way close to done
I've barely just begun

So I lean forward! forward! forward! forward!
Lean forward! forward! forward! forward!
