

Resign

Conchita Wurst

I resign
Too hard I've tried
But you won't see
You close your eyes and drift

I denied
Much more than once I've tried
But you and me
We fail to agree

More than this
I need more than this
I can't see the same you see in me

We've been running in circles
And I'm out of my breath
I can't carry you further
I resign, I resign

Just look, just for once
Just look me in the eyes
And if you can't see
That my heart just lost its beat

More than this
I need more than this
I can't see the same you see in me

We've been running in circles
And I'm out of my breath
I can't carry you further
I resign, I resign
