

Animal Prints

Conor Oberst

I was talking in my sleep
But your name was never mentioned
I'll sell all my race car shit to keep you and the baby
I've got so many sad words,
She said "I'll never wear that. I look so terrible in animal prints"
Another paycheck gone,
But you was forever giving me a sore throat
You came on strong only cause I hadn't seen it yet
You came on strong and looked for hidden meanings
Cause I like all that lazy shit
