

Overdue

Conor Oberst

I'm in bed beside some jail bait
Megan's passed out on the staircase
Michael's searching for a good vein
Tomorrow comes we'll do the same thing

Jim got blacked out at the tailgate
Emma's dressed up for the new wave
We're all so tired of this dance craze
We never learn so we just sway

And it's long overdue
It's so long overdue
It's just so long overdue
Still feels too soon
Still feels too soon

I read a book about the bad land
Sometimes this house looks like a death camp
And too much sun can be a drag, man
That's why we sleep as late as we can

And it's long overdue
It's so long overdue
It's just so long overdue
Still feels too soon
Still feels too soon

But it's so long overdue
It's so long overdue
It's just so long overdue
Still feels too soon
Still feels too soon

Will you meet me at the station
Promise me a long vacation
Laying on the beach for hours
Laying on the beach for hours
