

The Reason I Exist

Conor Oberst

He walks slow, he walks slower than me
He gets angry when you tell him that he talks, he talks faster than me
He doesn't notice when he says nothing at all You're a real machine when it comes to saying things that you d on't mean
Do you mean? Cause I can't tell at all,

This conversations ended cause I'd rather be alone
Then to hear your fucking torture as it spills out of your thro at How many times we tried it, I guess I just lost track Tell all your friends I'm bitter, I don't care just don't come back
Just don't come back, just don't come back I gave up a long time ago the thought that you could ever talk to me
In a tone of voice that doesn't make me feel like I am three Like I am three years old as you explain exactly what I've done Or what you thought I did
