

In the rage of battle all night
And almost loose belief
Will live to see the first dawn
With the spark of hope within

There's no turning back
Nothing left to fear
We're in desperate rush
Smashing enemies

Sunrise sends the breaking dawn
Fills our hearts with belief
Turning point of battle is now
In the rays of our win

This times will turn in legends
The legacy of kin
Down the years we will remember
The might of light and dream

There's no turning back
We're in desperate rush
Smashing enemies

Sunrise sends the breaking dawn
Fills our hearts with belief
Turning point of battle is now
In the rays of our win

Sunrise sends the breaking dawn
Fills our hearts with belief
Turning point of battle is now
In the rays of our win

Ring of swords are louder now
Feeling of victory
Showing will of adamant
We will stand bravery
