Trouble Sleeping

Corinne Bailey Rae

It's late and I'm feeling so tired Having trouble sleeping This constant compromise Between thinking and breathing

Could it be I'm suffering
Because I'll never give in
Won't say that I'm falling in love

Please, please, tell me I don't see myself Couldn't I blame something else No, don't say, yeah Don't say I'm falling in love

Some kind of therapy is all I need Please believe me Some instant remedy That can cure me completely

Could it be I'm suffering
Because I'll never give in
Won't say that I'm falling in love

Please, please, tell me
I don't see myself
Couldn't I blame something else
No, don't say, yeah
Please don't say I'm falling in love

'Cause I've been there before And it's not enough So nobody say it

Don't even say it I've got my eyes shut Oh, no, oh, no, not enough

Could it be I'm suffering Because I'll never give in Won't say that I'm falling in love

Please, please, tell me I don't see myself Couldn't I blame something else No, don't say, yeah Please don't say I'm falling in love

Don't say that I'm falling in love Don't say that I'm falling in love Don't say that I'm falling in love Don't say that I'm falling in love

Couldn't I blame something else
Falling in love

Don't say, don't say

```
Don't say, don't say
Falling in love

Don't say that I'm falling in love Don't say that I'm falling in love
