younawmsayin' son?
shit is real yo, I'm from a place where niggaz get it on and bullshitters get shitted on and dead niggaz keep living on and memories once the henny's pourin' I see the sadness of so many mourned yet the beauty of so many born and the only man I trust is god cause the devil come in many forms on the day I rest eternally I'll be a thug for eternity the longer word is fire burning me but you younger thugs could learn from me love is love.
