

Mercy

Cory Asbury

(Jesus)

Mercy covers your throne
Like a rainbow, like a rainbow
Here I find myself in the sweetest embrace
With a love that I could never earn
And it's only in this place, that I am truly saved
Surrendered to beauty untold

Your mercy, it covers me wherever I go
Your kindness, it never ends, oh Lord

There's nothing I could do to change your mind about me
There's nothing I could do

Mercy flows from your throne
Like a river, like a river
Here I find myself in the healing embrace
It's a love like I have never known
And it's only in this place, that I am truly saved
Surrendered to beauty untold

Your mercy, it covers me wherever I go
Your kindness, it never ends, oh Lord

There's nothing I could do to change your mind
God, there's nothing I could do to change your mind about me

There's nothing I can do
To keep you from loving me
To keep you from wanting me, Jesus

Your love it never fails
Your love it never fails
Your love it never fails me
Jesus

God, there's nothing I could do to change your mind about me
God, there's nothing I could do to change your mind
God, there's nothing I could do to change your mind
God, there's nothing I could do to change your mind about me

You're a good, good Father
And you love your children
Slow to anger, abounding in love
You are so, so gracious
Oh so merciful
How you love, how you love us so
